

PLAN NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FUND

States Will Be Asked to Aid George Washington University.

For the purpose of taking steps toward a national organization in the interest of the George Washington University endowment, a meeting of the various committees working in the campaign will be held at the university next Monday evening. Several prominent citizens of the District who have not served on committees, but who are especially interested in the national aspects of the movement have promised to be present. It is probable that the plan of campaign suggested at the public conference at the New Willard last Monday by John Barrett, director of the Bureau of American Republics, will come up for discussion at the meeting.

"PAY A MILLION," ANDREW CARNEGIE

Check Signer Is Twelve-Year-Old Cousin of Steel King.

PITTSBURGH, March 28.—The discovery is made in Pittsburgh that there is another Andrew Carnegie besides the steel king. The second Andrew Carnegie is but twelve years old, yet a full cousin of the other.

The relationship has been discovered through the weakness which the younger Andrew has had for carrying a "phony" check book and issuing checks in large amounts. In a game of marbles the child is said to have written a "check" as follows:

"Pay to the bearer one million dollars. ANDREW CARNEGIE."

This precocious boy, with two sisters, lives in Noble street, and they are the children of William Carnegie, the youngest uncle of the steel king, who married late in life.

ATHLETE LAMED FOR LIFE BY WRECK AT TERRA COTTA

After having been in the George Washington University for three months, one of the victims of the Terra Cotta is still confronted with the knowledge that he will have to stay there another month, possibly two months more. He is Clarence A. Proctor, an all-around athlete. A short time ago he suffered a severe relapse, but is now pronounced by the hospital physicians to be recovering slowly, but satisfactorily.

SUIT TO RECOVER MILLION OF ENDOWMENT FUND

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 28.—Suit to recover from Berea College, Ky., a portion of its endowment fund of more than $1,000,000 is to be brought by President F. L. Williams, of the Colored State Teachers' Association. The part of the endowment for the recovery of which suit will be entered is that which was given when the college was open to both whites and blacks. By legislative enactment negroes have been barred from being educated at the same places as whites in Kentucky, and the constitutionality of the law is now before the United States Supreme Court. The proposed suit will be instituted after the supreme court decision is announced.

Just what you'd expect of us---offering $4 to $10 trimmed hats at $2.98 and $3.98

A RETAIL merchant in Chicago played right into our hands when in a fit of temper he canceled the order for these hats because they were delayed in shipment. You never saw such truly stylish hats priced so low. At a glance it can be seen that these hats were made for a high-class trade, and we know Washington women will snap them up quick! Think of the timeliness of the sale, too—just the day when an EASTER HAT MUST BE BOUGHT.

We considered this when we closed the deal, and had the hats shipped so we could have them for Saturday's buyers. They arrived this morning, and all who have seen them are quite enthusiastic about their smart appearance.

There are hats to wear with tailored gowns and hats for wear with more dressy costumes. Plateaus of tuscany, burnt straw, prunella and other straws bent into the most becoming and bewitching shapes ever seen. Hemp, horsehair, macrae, satin, and other straws are here in the most charming shapes of mushroom, chapeaux, turban and Scotch highland effects. Very pretty effects have trimming of plaid silk with quills and rosette to match. There is every color one could possibly want such as brown, champagne, Copenhagen, heliotrope, blue, red and reseda, and trimmings are ribbons, wings, quills, flowers and the much used large ball top pins. You'll not be able to get away from these hats without buying one—and there must be a becoming shape among the fifty and more shapes represented. Choice of these tomorrow at $2.98 and $3.98, although worth $4.00 to $10.00.

We have plenty of the scarce daisies Practically a field of daisies in our millinery section. Every color is represented—every size—and every combination.
